Piano Values--Our Methods

In advertising our piano values and our methods it is our purpose to advise with all, along intelligent lines—the course to pursue in selecting a piano—one of real worth for the money you invest. We are confident of having the largest lines of quality pianos at the lowest prices, and our liberal terms of payment privileges you to the ownership of a piano the day you make your selection by investing a small amount of cash as first payment.

Our one-price policy must convince even the most doubting of our superior service in treating one customer the same as another, and is a point to be well considered when purchasing a piano. We invite inspections and comparison.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

A new branch of the auxiliary is being organized in Lebanon, Ind. In the front rank of the German day parade at New Haven, Conn., were the Hibernians.

The Ancient Order made remarkable progress in Ireland during the past year, over 100 new divisions being organized.

Monday night Division 4 will meet at Hertford Hall, and on account of its importance President Hennessey looks for a large attendance.

Mrs. Mary F. McWhorter, Chairman of the National Irish History Committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary, is doing a great work in her line of activity.

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary's National Board was held in Atlantic City and reports showed that it was never in a more flourishing condition.

The branch of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Logansport, Ind., was organized only last spring and now has a drill and degree team.

In deference to the Irish-American day celebration on Monday, August 21, Division 3 will meet on Sunday afternoon, August 20. This shows the right spirit.

The Hibernians and the Ladies' Auxiliary of Indianapolis propose to give valuable prizes for students proficient in Irish history during the coming school term.

Division 1 meets Tuesday night at Falls City Hall. Plans for a fall and winter campaign will be suggested, and therefore all members are urged to be present.

The season for initiations is fast approaching, which recalls the promise made at the quarterly meeting. Every member should endeavor to secure at least one candidate.

In several cities of Indiana the pupils are taking an active interest in the study of Irish history, and it will be added to the curriculum of other parochial schools in September.

Division 2 meets Wednesday night, when the committee appointed to secure new quarters will report. This matter is of great importance and should bring every member to this meeting.

Millwaukee Hibernians had a monster gathering at Pabst Park last Saturday. Hon. William Dillon was the orator, while Irish pipes and music and Irish dancers proved interesting features.

Right Rev. Bishop Carroll, our National Chaplain, en route to Helena, Mont., from his visit to Rome, was tendered a grand reception Monday night by the Hibernians of St. Paul, Minn.

Division 1 of Jeffersonville may decide upon a celebration at the meeting to be held Wednesday night in Elks' Hall. Whatever is decided upon will have the support of the Louisville divisions.

All the divisions are interested in the success of Irish-American day at Riverview Park, and at the meetings next week the programme will be announced and the part the divisions are expected to play.

Right Rev. Bishop Carroll, Auxiliary Bishop of Indianapolis, has expressed his hearty approval of the teaching of Irish history in the seventh and eighth grades, provided the children of Irish parents desire it.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is to be congratulated on the success of the Fontaine Ferry outing. Notwithstanding the many counter attractions in all sections of the city their friends turned out in numbers and spent a really enjoyable evening.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet Wednesday night, when a large attendance is expected to hear the report on the outing. The names of the winners in the contest will also be announced, and the session promises to be one of unusual interest.

In a letter to Professor Rohan Archbishop Messmer, of Milwaukee, said: "In my judgment the American Catholic child who has not read the story of Ireland's heroic struggles for faith and nationality is imperfectly educated in the history of the faith."

HAPPY MEETING.

Mrs. Victoria Link and her sons, William A. and A. C. Link, will leave Sunday for Cincinnati to be present at the profession of Frater Conrad Link, son of Mrs. Link and brother of William A. C. Link. Conrad Link is to make his profession as a member of the Order of Friars Minor. The ceremony will take place at St. Anthony's Monastery next Tuesday. William Link will spend several days at the monastery with his brother, but will leave in time to attend the Grand Council, Y. M. I., at Carrollton.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

Encouraged by the increased patronage the Hopkins' management will continue the presentation of the stars of the vaudeville stage. For next week a bill of exceptional merit is promised, with all new and varied turns. In addition Charles Reinhart will offer, as usual, two of the most attractive spotlight song numbers turned out by the publishers, and there will be a discreet allotment of the newest motion picture gems.

UNITY'S DELEGATES.

Frank Ritz, Peter Gonder, John Stumler and James Ashabanner, all of New Albany, left the first of the week to attend the Grand Council of the Indiana Y. M. I. at Brazil, Ind. They are the delegates from Unity Council.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

A Struggling Medicine? Mrs. Kath. Higgins writes from Wesley, Iowa, March 17, 1910: "I was a total nerve wreck for several months—could not eat nor sleep. Any trifling matter made me nervous. I would cry and had a desire to be alone. Have taken 6 bottles of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and I am now happy and healthy. I am very much pleased with the medicine and will recommend it wherever I can." "I am happy and healthy. I am very much pleased with the medicine and will recommend it wherever I can." Mrs. M. McCabe, Quincy, Ill., 365 Washington St., Sept. 1, 1910. She suffered from Nervousness and Catarrh, but few bottles of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured her.

Dr. Leach writes from Coryville, Kas., Jan. 27, 1909: "Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic did my daughter more good than all the doctors."

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Please send me the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the Koenig Med. Co., Chicago, Ill.

109 Lake Street.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle, 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

COL. MACAULEY HOME.

Col. John T. Macauley has arrived home from New York after a visit of two weeks. He announces that Macauley's Theater will open for the season on September 4, with Al G. Field's minstrels as the attraction. He will announce other bookings later and declares that he will have some of the best attractions in the country. Macauley's Theater is being thoroughly overhauled and renovated.

FONTAINE FERRY PARK.

Bohumin Kryl and his Bohemian band will remain at least one more week at Fontaine Ferry Park. Their music has found favor with park patrons and their retention will attract a better attendance next week. The vaudeville attractions at Fontaine Ferry will be out of the ordinary during the coming week.

NUN IS RECOVERING.

Sister Bonaville Murphy, of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, is rallying after an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Infirmary. She has been a member of the community for twenty years.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

Water is being sold in some cases at Belurbet at one penny per gallon, so scarce is the supply.

Dundalk Guardians have co-opted Arthur McDonald in room of the late John O'Connell as one of the Guardians of the Middle ward.

The Dundalk Urban Council has appointed P. A. Spalding, of Galway, to be resident engineer to manage the electric lighting undertaking.

At the Carlow Assizes James Monks, who was charged with killing his wife, Mary Monks, was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment.

Over 600 perches of the public road in the Kells rural district of County Meath, adjoining on a turf bog, have been destroyed by fire.

T. C. McArdle and William Twibill have been co-opted by the Dundalk Harbor Board, succeeding William Tempert, J. P., and H. M. Williamson.

Among the wide circle of acquaintances the death was learned with regret of Edmund McSwenny, in his seventy-eighth year, at his residence, Killarney.

An old woman named Margaret Kelly, living at Lisnaville, near Furry, dropped dead in the house of her daughter-in-law. She was ninety-five years of age.

Miss Winifred Fallon (in religion Sister Mary Alphonsus), daughter of John Fallon, of Thurloughmore, Galway, was solemnly professed at the Presentation Convent, Warrenmount.

Michael Behan, of Killarney, was shooting rabbits on his farm when the gun exploded, shattering his left hand to such an extent that it had to be amputated at the County Kill-dare Infirmary.

The departure of Rev. Nicholas Rafferty for the United States of America has occasioned keen regret in the parishes of Keash and Gurteen, where he was so well known and so exceedingly popular.

The Ardilly copper mines, situated between Kilgarvan and Kenmare, which were worked up to about fifty years ago, and which were noted for the high quality of the copper, have been reopened.

A serious conflagration, which originated accidentally, was extinguished by the greater portion of the mountain of Teavin, in the Dungiven district of County Derry. Considerable loss has been sustained by those owning the turf cut from the bog on the mountain side.

While bathing with a companion in the North at Ladysmith, County Kilkenny, John Langston, aged twenty-nine, was seized with cramps and drowned before his companion could reach him. A few years ago his father, a linesman, met with a shocking death on the railway.

His parishioners and a wide circle of friends learned with regret of the serious illness of the Rev. Patrick Kenny, who received the last rites of the church a few days ago, is deservedly popular, and has taken a prominent part in all movements tending for the benefit of his flock.

The hay crop around Carrick has proven very heavy notwithstanding all that was predicted, and has been well saved. Everything looks well for the country, even if we take into consideration the trend of politics. It will be all the more cheery to live in the old land now that the shadows are lifting and the era of prosperity is at hand.

Michael Keane, Maurice and John Foley, and William Pierce, boys of the farming class, pleaded guilty at Kerry Assizes to having wrecked the dwelling house of Patrick Carroll at Lixnaw. The case arose out of the Ballingtogether quarry dispute. As they intended only a joke they were dismissed upon their own recognizance.

Owing to the continued drought much discontent prevails in Wexford to the shortage of the water supply. The reservoir has within the past few weeks lowered fifty-five inches below the lowest, and consequently the Corporation have found it necessary to curtail the supply to seven hours daily, while the water is satirically shut off at night for the past month.

DIAMOND BAZAR.

The people of St. Boniface congregation are making arrangements to give a diamond jubilee bazar for the benefit of the church on November 20-27. The bazar will be held in the new hall adjoining the church. More than 250 men answered the first call to form an organization to arrange for this great fete and Fred Schwenker is doing great work as publicity agent. Combination books are out announcing that the following awards will be made: Gentleman's gold watch, $20 refrigerator, gentleman's gold ring, roving chair, gas range, lady's gold watch, two tons of coal, $10 in gold, barrel of flour, portrait of Bishop O'Donoghue, pair of $5 shoes, porcelain clock, $5 in gold, pair of marble jardiniere and a case of wine.

MOVING PICTURES.

The Casino and Orpheum continue to present film dramas of sweeping action, interspersed with pictures of comedy and pathos, where visitors to the shopping district find an ideal place for an hour of rest and enjoyment. Pictures never exhibited here before will be seen next week. The new illustrated songs will be also a pleasing diversion.

POET NUN.

The poem "Just For Today" was written by Sister Mary Xavier, of the Order of Notre Dame. She was a resident of England.
